A Parking Meter

Plan to Create Good Will

Story of the Day
This one is current on the streets of Hope —
It's about the farmer who wrote a letter to the Lonely Hearts magazine.

"Farmer, with farm," the letter said, "would like to meet a farm lady, with tractor. Please send picture — of tractor."

As you read in yesterday's edition, the Hope City Council set aside last Tuesday's meeting for an open session on the question of installing parking meters in our town — but no one showed up.

Accordingly, an ordinance to authorize purchase and installation of the meters, and the calling of a special election on same, was put on first reading by the council.

So the machinery to create a parking meter system here is rolling.

And this makes pertinent an article in the May issue of the Hardware Retailer magazine which LaGrone Williams left with me late yesterday. It says in part:

"Many communities wonder how to handle parking meter violations so that a minimum amount of ill will is incurred by the town or city and the merchants in general."

Elwood, Ind. (population 10,000) the retailers have worked out a Courtesy Nickel Parking Meter Plan which seems to be solving the overparking problem. Here's how it works:

"The police officer who finds a car parked overtime issues a violation ticket in the usual manner but in addition places a courtesy nickel envelope under the windshield wiper and inserts a nickel in the meter. This eliminates the usual fine for overparking, which is $1."

"The wording on the Courtesy Nickel envelope is:

"Patrolman No. — found your vehicle, License No. — overparked at this meter at — A. M.-P. M. on —. Realizing that you may have been inadvertently detained, he has placed a nickel in the meter from a fund supplied by the Retail Division of the Elwood Chamber of Commerce. Please present this envelope along with your violation ticket to the city clerk-treasurer, or to Police Headquarters, and the customary fine will be omitted. The envelope is also for your use in reimbursing our Courtesy Fund if you desire. Meters speed turnover, thereby giving you a convenient place to park. By observing the parking limit, you help your neighbor and yourself. Elwood appreciates your patronage and invites you to come again."

"The Courtesy Nickel Fund was started with $100 supplied by the Chamber of Commerce and it has remained at approximately that figure, in addition to paying for the envelopes used in the plan. Violators almost without exception pay back those parking nickels. Some also make extra donations to the fund."

Well, Hope — there's the Indiana Plan. Not a thing wrong with it, either.

U. S. Ordered to Cut Staff in Romania

London, May 18 — (P) — Romania has become the latest Soviet satellite to demand that the United States cut its diplomatic staff within the country.

Dispatches from Bucharest today said the Communist-led Romanian government has accused U. S. diplomats there of spying and demanded that the legation staff be reduced to 10 members.

Last month the Czechoslovak government demanded that the U. S. legation staff in Prague be cut by two-thirds. Washington countered with an order for a similar reduction of Czech personnel in the United States.

Romania told the U. S. to close its information center in Bucharest in March charging "activities hostile to the Romanian people" were centered in the office. Retaliating, the U. S. ordered the Romanian commercial attaché's office in New York closed.

Romania made its demand for reduction in the legation personnel in a note refusing a U. S. request for visas for new members of the legation.

The Romanians demanded the U. S. staff be put on a parity with the Romanian legation in Washington and said the American staff, despite an "unfriendly" U. S. policy toward Romania, is much larger than before the war.

The note charged the U. S. with efforts to interfere in Romania's internal affairs, "slandering attacks" on the country, a hostile attitude toward her in the United Nations, official support of refugee "traitors" and cited recent treason trial testimony that members of the American legation in Budapest have been spying.

Demonstration on Pastures Planned Friday

It's time to start work on final plans for seeding the newer and better pasture plants, says Oliver L. Adams, county agent, in announcing a study day for farmers at the M. S. Bates pasture demonstration on West 16th street in south Hope for Friday morning, May 19, any time between 9 and 11 o'clock.

Reseeding crimson clover, which has been termed the South's magic carpet, has just passed full bloom in the Bates pastures. Many farmers are interested in seeing and knowing more about this new crop which furnishes winter grazing, winter cover, organic matter and seed.

In addition to the reseeded crimson clover, farmers visiting the Bates demonstration Friday will see Ladino clover, singletary peas, Persian clover, white clover, hop clover, lespedezas, cheat, Kentucky 31 fescue, Dallas grass and Bermuda grass.

The above crops were seeded last fall and have been grazed during the winter. After grazing the plants have been allowed to develop for reseeded and building up the organic matter content of the soil.

In the permanent pasture being developed adjacent to the special pasture demonstration the steps being followed by Mr. Bates will be discussed and shown.

The schedule announced for Friday's meeting includes four special studies and will be discussed with groups during the morning as follows:

Step 1, Kentucky 31 fescue.
Step 2, Winter pasture mixture including reseeded crimson clover, singletary peas, Ladino clover, hop clover, and cheat.
Step 3, Specimen plantings of reseeded crimson clover and Ladino clover.
Step 4, Permanent pasture improvement and management.

Spa Man to Head State Labor Group

Fort Smith, May 18 — (P) — Charles W. Mowery of Hot Springs will head the Arkansas Federation of Labor for another year.

He was re-elected president here yesterday as the federation closed its annual convention.

Next year the labor organization will meet in Texarkana.

Lester Newland, Little Rock city electrician, was elected vice president, and was elected secretary-treasurer.

The federation named an executive board, which includes J. D. McPherson, Pine Bluff; W. A. Glenn, Camden, and H. C. Bryant, Jonesboro.

Would Slash Interest on Overpayments

Washington, May 18 — (P) — The house ways and means committee voted today to cut to 2 per cent the interest rate the government pays on overpayments of taxes that later are refunded.

The rate now is 5 percent. The committee decided to keep at 6 percent the rate the taxpayer must pay if he is late with his payments.

At present, the government pays out about $100,000,000 a year in interest on tax overpayments later refunded. Staff Experts advised the committee that cutting the rate from 6 to 2 percent would save the government $67,000,000 a year.

Washington, May 18 — (P) — House members disagreed widely today over whether a proposed tax cut on profits from stock and bond deals would help market speculators more than it would the nation's economy.

The proposal, approved by the house ways and means committee yesterday, would apply to trading in real estate and commodities, as well as to stocks and bonds. The committee's action brought an immediate dispute among its members.

Rep. Combs (D-Tex) called the suggested cut "grossly inequitable," and said its main benefits would go to stock market speculators and high-bracket taxpayers while those in the lower brackets would suffer.

Rep. Lynch (D-NY) countered by calling the committee action an "excellent" move which would stimulate business and add $100,000,000 a year to the government's income.

If approved by congress, the committee recommendation would have this effect:

1. The maximum tax on long-term capital gains would be slashed from the present 25 per cent to 16 per cent.

2. A capital asset would have to be held only three months — instead of six — in order for its sale to be considered as either a gain or a loss for income tax purposes.

The first provision would apply to transactions by individuals only; the second would apply to deals by both individuals and corporations.

By law, a gain or loss from the sale of such property held longer than six months may be computed along with other income and deductions for tax purposes. This means a savings to persons with incomes taxed less than 50 per cent.

Winds Pound Sagging Dikes at Winnipeg

Winnipeg, Man., May 17 — (UP) — Winds of near gale force pounded flood water against this prairie capital's sagging dikes today.

Fred McGinnis, a flood control spokesman, said that even if the dikes held, waves would lap over and deepen the seepage pools behind them. At least 17 per cent of Canada's fourth largest city already under water.

Dikeman and spotters equipped with walkie-talkies reported scores of weak spots in the 20 miles of earthworks. Within minutes, flying squads of civilians and soldiers from headquarters were filling the breaches with sandbags.

A weather bureau forecast of showers tonight added to the worries of 55,000 floodfighters battling the 30.2-foot crest.

A quarter of an inch rainfall yesterday weakened the dikes noticeably and doubled the number of calls for reinforcements from a stockpile of 900,000 sandbags. A half inch of rain which fell in southern Manitoba was expected to maintain the four-day-old flood crest.

West Sets Up High Command to Block Reds

London, May 18 — (P) — The Western powers have agreed to set up a high command to block armed attack or "trojan horse" conquest.

Continuing their meeting here, the foreign ministers of the 12 Atlantic pact nations disclosed last night anti-Red defense measures would be directed, and coordinated, by a permanent council of their deputies, probably headed by an American.

European newspapers have been full of speculation about who the council head would be. Those mentioned include W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the Marshall plan; Robert A. Lovett, former under-secretary of state; Gen. Omar A. Bradley, chairman of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff, and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, wartime supreme Allied commander in Europe.

A communique announcing the new setup is scheduled to be issued when the foreign ministers end their meeting tonight.

The permanent council will have two main jobs.

First, it must work out a time schedule for rearming — for the making and allocation of arms and the drawing up of final military plans — so the West can feel sure of stopping Russian aggression if it comes.

Second, it must bolster the economies of the Western nations so that the large Communist parties in countries like France and Italy will find less discontent to exploit.

The 12 nations which agreed on this plan are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Italy, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Portugal and Iceland.

Agreement was achieved only after considerable soul-searching by some European members who fear they will be used only as expendable bases in the event of Russian aggression.

They were told the West must adopt a bold strategy of strength, of winning Russian respect by a display of power.

Field Day Set for Saturday; Troop 90 to Meet

To Be Happily Married Is a Good Life the Duke of Windsor Tells Newsmen

By HAL BOYLE
New York — (P) — "To be as happily married as I am—I call that a good life," said the Duke of Windsor.

He had just finished watching a film screening of his first television appearance. I had been invited to see the screening in the offices of "March of Time." Before going, on the off-chance that the duke himself might show up, I went around my own office and asked a number of men and women: "What is the thing you'd like to know most today about the Duke of Windsor?"

I turned out that most wanted to know these things: Is he happy? Does he have any regrets over giving up his throne?

Shortly before the hour of screening the duke did show up—wearing an ageless smile, a jaunty red polka dot bow tie, and a gray striped flannel suit. The years have touched him lightly, he still has 56 next month, but he still has an air of timeless youth.

He said he was sorry the duchess couldn't come.

During the showing of the film the duke joked lightly—he called it about his acting ability.

"My, I look so old," he laughed at one point.

Afterward I joined a group chatting with the duke. I told him what my fellow workers wanted to know about him, and he seemed genuinely pleased at their interest.

"I'm certainly am happy," he smiled, "although the world today is not a very happy place."

"What do you miss most now from your days as king?"

"I don't miss being king, but I do miss my country and working for it," he said. "I never have an idle moment. The day is not half long enough—even when I'm not writing."

The duke has been busy the last three years writing the story of his life from the end of the first

Jerry May in Hospital at Texarkana

Jerry May, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert May of Bodew, is in St. Michael hospital in Texarkana, friends of the family said here today. He is a victim of leukemia.

Early this year this section donated more than $1,000 to help Jerry's parents take him to Boston for treatments. Now Jerry has to have a pint of blood each day to stay alive.

Practically everyone in Bodew has given all the blood they can this month. So the family friends issued an appeal for residents of Hope and other surrounding towns to go by the hospital when in Texarkana and donate a pint of blood. The type is A or O.

The blue spruce is Utah's state tree, the Sego lily its flowers, the sea gull its bird.

Jonesboro Bank Holdup Nets Robber $18,000

Jonesboro, May 18 — (UP) — A statewide dragnet thrown up by Arkansas law enforcement officers had failed early today to flush the unidentified bandit who pulled one of the largest robberies in the state's history.

Officers were searching for the lone gunman who made off with $18,070 from the Peoples National bank here last yesterday.

It was the biggest bank robbery in Arkansas since Charles Chapman lifted $25,000 from a bank in Camden in 1933.

Road blocks and intensive investigation had failed to reveal any tangible clues on the whereabouts of the Jonesboro bandit.

"We've got a good description of the man, but that's about all," Sheriff W. V. Nash of Craighead county reported.

The description was furnished by Miss Helen Veal, a Jonesboro laundry employee who said the man passed her carrying a paper sack as he ran from the bank.

She told the police he made his getaway in a late model car.

Tony Falk, executive vice-president of the bank, said the robbery was a smooth efficient operation, apparently well-planned.

"That man was only in the bank about a minute, he told officers."

Falk and three other employees were in the bank when the robbery occurred. There were no customers in the bank at 12:50 p.m. when the bandit, wearing dark smoked sunglasses, entered.

Falk said that he held a pistol in one hand and a paper bag in the other. He told a teller to put his cash in the bag — then crouched to a second teller and told him to repeat the operation.

About $10,740 was taken from the first teller and $7,930 from the second. The money was in bills of five, ten and twenty dollar denominations.

Jonesboro, May 18 — (P) — No developments were reported today in a widespread search for a lone gunman who robbed the Peoples National bank of $18,370 here yesterday.

The pistol-packing robber, masked only by colored glasses, forced two tellers to put the cash into a paper bag. Then he walked out of the building, ran down an alley, jumped into an automobile and raced away.

The hold-up took place during the noon hour while there were four employees and no customers in the bank.

It apparently was the largest bank haul in Arkansas since the late Charles Chapman, once designated public enemy No. 1, operated in the early 1930's.

Chapman was blamed for a $25,000 robbery of a Camden bank and $24,000 robbery of a Hope bank in 1933.

ABC said Tito will be contacted by transatlantic telephone and asked to give his views on international atomic control.

A Yugoslav newspaperman, a member of the United Nations correspondents' association, will do the taking and translate for the audience what the marshal says.

Arrangements for the broadcast, from 8:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. (CST), were made through the Yugoslav U. N. delegation, ABC said.

U. S. to Press Labor Law Violation

Chicago, May 18 —(P)—The government has decided to press charges against labor practices charges against Mine Workers and an Illinois Coal company in the case of a Canton, Ill., miner.

The miner, Lloyd Sidener, 45, filed the charges under the Taft-Hartley labor law. He was ousted March 7 as UMW local president at Canton. The union fined him $5,000 and $25 for every day he might work in the future.

Sidener said the union fired him for trying to obey a federal court's back-to-work order. The union's state officers said he was ousted for trying to obey a federal court's back-to-work order. The union's state officers said he was ousted for trying to set up a "dual" or rival union.

Tax-Dodgers Given One Last Chance

Washington, May 18 —(P)—Rep. Forand (D-RI) proposed today that the government offer tax-dodgers "one last chance" to come in and settle up — before the justice department cracks down with prosecution.

Saying he believes income tax evasion runs close to $5,000,000 a year, Forand suggested that the house ways and means committee write an "amnesty" provision into the new tax bill it now is framing. "This would bring in millions of dollars," he said.

His proposal would allow persons income tax payments to pay what they owe, plus a 50 per cent penalty, plus interest — and make a clean breast of it. That would bar the door against criminal prosecution.

Under Forand's suggestion, a tax-dodger could do this only prior to the time an investigation or prosecution was started in his case. If an investigation already had been started, it would be too late for the individual to appear voluntarily and pay up. At that point he either would have to clear himself or, perhaps, go to prison.

"Such a provision for voluntary payment prior to investigation of an individual's tax case, would bring in a lot of millions of dollars," Forand said. "It also would save the government the cost of many prosecutions."

Ross M. Madden, regional director of the national labor relations board in Chicago, issued a complaint against the union and the company yesterday.

Madden's office said it acted after efforts to settle the dispute "informally" had failed. It set June 20 for a hearing at Canton. The NLRB complaint says the Canton UMW local fined Sidener, a shovel engineer at the coal company's Buckheart mine near Canton, when he tried to resume work during the coal strike last February. It states that the union later caused the company to fire Sidener March 13 by threatening to call a strike at the mine.

The complaint's basic charge is that the union and the company violated the law by interfering with Sidener's legal right to work, consisted of trying to get the company and the union to reinstate Sidener with back pay for his period of idleness.

Generally Fair Is Report on Weather

By The Associated Press

There were a few wet spots but, generally, the nation's weather was fair today.

Temperatures were at normal levels in most areas. But cool weather continued in the northern Great Lakes region and it was a little cooler in the Pacific northwest.

The mercury dipped to below freezing in parts of Michigan and it was in the low 30's in parts of northern Minnesota and northern Wisconsin. The early morning low was 29 at Grand Marais, Mich.

The only precipitation was isolated showers over the Great Plains, the northern Rockies and a small section of the middle Atlantic states.

Yesterday's temperature contrast was a high of 105 at Presidio, Tex., and 43 at Duluth, Minn.

The flood situation in Winnipeg and southern Manitoba remained serious but there was some hope of a slow drop in the flooding Red river. The stream has held steady at 12 feet above flood stage for more than 30 hours. Some 30,000 persons have been driven from their homes by the floodwaters in the last three weeks.

It is estimated there are a quarter of a million gasoline service stations in the United States.

Allows Sale

Washington, May 19 —(P)—Arkansas Power and Light company, Little Rock, Ark., has requested securities and exchange commission permission to sell $6,000,000 of 30-year first mortgage bonds and 155,000 shares of $100 preferred stock.

OFFERS TO PAY FRIENDS IF HADACOL DOESN'T HELP

HADACOL HELPS SUFFERERS OF VITAMIN B1, B2, NIACIN AND IRON DEFICIENCIES

Mrs. Wallace tells her granddaughter, Maynell Wallace, over the phone how HADACOL brought relief to her.

Mrs. Belle Wallace, 449 Formwalt St., W. Atlanta, Ga., is so grateful to HADACOL for the blessings it has brought her that she has recommended HADACOL to a number of her friends. She told them she would pay for their bottles of HADACOL if it didn't help them. She explains with a smile that she hasn't had to pay any of her friends, because HADACOL has helped them.

Mrs. Wallace, who is 74 years old, has five children, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was suffering from a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Mrs. Wallace said: "I couldn't sleep or eat until I started taking HADACOL. I'd lie awake and toss and turn until the small hours of the morning. I was highly nervous. I couldn't even thread a needle. But since I've been taking HADACOL, my nerves are as steady as a rock. I couldn't eat because I didn't did my stomach would puff and bloated and fill with gas. I am in the 7th bottle of HADACOL and my stomach is so much better."

Appetite Good
"I have a good appetite and my stomach does not bloat or fill with gas. I sleep like a log. I have recommended HADACOL to a number of friends and have told them that if it didn't help them, I'd pay for it, but I didn't have to because HADACOL did help them. HADACOL has done me more good than anything I have ever taken."

Why Be Satisfied With Temporary Relief?

HADACOL also helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (where Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ, and every part of your body — to the heart, liver, kidneys and lungs — (even to the eyes, hair and nails) to help repair the damage that such a deficiency may be causing there. Countless thousands are benefitting from HADACOL. Why don't you give it a chance to help you? Why continue to suffer? Remember, HADACOL doesn't give temporary relief. Instead, it treats the real cause of your illness when, as so often, it's due to such deficiencies. That's why it's so effective; that's why it is accomplishing such amazing results.

You'll Feel Great
... with the first few bottles you take, or your money back. There is only one HADACOL and it is sold on a strict money-back guarantee. So give this remarkable HADACOL medicine a chance to help you. It's never too late to start taking HADACOL. Many who despair of improvement found that HADACOL was almost like a miracle for them. Remember that HADACOL is amazingly different and amazingly effective because it treats the real cause of deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Make up your mind to take HADACOL regularly. Refuse substitutes. Insist on the genuine. You can't lose a cent because it's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Only $1.25 for Trial size, $3.50. Family or Hospital size, $3.50. —Adv.

The LONESOME BRIDE

By Grace Nies Fletcher

Copyright 1950 by NEA Service Inc.

THE STORY: Gloria Brown, one of four girls, asks Mrs. Benoit to come to the apartment next door, to show her how to make an apple pie. During the instruction a messenger brings a hat box for Mrs. Benoit and the woman also gets a phone call from her husband about something on page 7 of a newspaper. While Gloria waits for her husband, she is locked in the bathroom. Mrs. Benoit lets her out, explaining that it was an accident. But after taking her pie back to her own apartment, Gloria is still curious about what was in that newspaper.

IV

GLORIA dressed carefully, for she had a theory that even on Fifth Avenue in Brooklyn, where she shopped because things were cheaper, you got better service if you looked like something out of a fashion magazine, rather than like mother's helper. Her red and white summer dress, her white pique hat and gloves were crisp and fresh as peppermint candy.

"Good afternoon, Mrs. Brown." For the first time Eric, his golden epaulettes rattling as he opened the heavy glass door, called her by name and Gloria looked up at him, startled, as he added with humor lumping and a cowering elephant. "The Benois are nice people, aren't they? Have you known them long?"

"Oh, eons," she told him coldly in her most Radcliffe manner and swept by with a swish of peppermint skirts. Queer, your not being visible even on the far horizon for so long and now everyone chatty at once.

"Don't look now, but your fatal charm is showing," Gloria grinned to herself as she turned the corner onto Fifth Avenue. Being one of the gang at last made her smile so radiant that its effulgence gilded the face of the little newsboy selling papers on the corner and he grinned back at her.

"Hi, Miss!" There was friendliness and admiration in the frank appraisal he gave her. This was the real McCoy, a hot rock with class, his glance almost shouted.

"Have you an early edition of the afternoon tabloid?" she asked him.

"Crises, at 4 in the p.m. I'll have one printed up for you special," he told her impudently. He looked about 10 years old, with bright eyes sharp with a knowledge far beyond his years, a hard, shrewd little face, fairly clean; and yet there was an innate chivalry in his bearing that made his shapeless slacks, his cheap sport shirt, and his cheaper pertness somehow unimportant. There's good blood in him somewhere, Gloria thought.

"Why not try a later edition?" he queried. "Sometimes they hold things over, if it's something special you're lookin' for."

"THE trouble is, I don't know what I am looking for," she told him absently and flipped the pages of the paper to Page 7 which was mostly pictures with screaming captions. A seven-year-old boy had drowned in a pond in New Jersey with dotted lines to show where the grappers had found the body; there was a picture of a Russian diplomat looking as if he had swallowed a sour pickle entitled, "Sour Puss." Stylish State Department Again!

the Bronx love-nest of a prominent man had been discovered by his wife and she was pulling the girl friend's hair; the Parole Board had released several unpronounceable and very ugly prisoners; and the Un-American Activities Committee was clucking over a new brood of Communists.

"Find what you wanted?" the newsboy queried.

"I don't know," she told him.

"What's your name?"

"Sammy," he told her. "What's yours, Handsome?"

Curiously he did not sound impudent at all, just interested. "Mrs. Benoit's Brown. I live at the Splendide Apartments," she told him, adding impulsively. "Here."

She pressed a quarter into his grimy hand urging, "Get yourself a banana split, Sammy," and walked off, leaving him murmuring ecstatically, "Well gee, thanks!"

"The third person who's spoken to me today!" Gloria gloated, floating along down the crowded street in a golden haze of friendliness. "We're beginning to belong! We're Brooklynites or is it else?" She exulted to Mitliades that evening after he'd eaten half the pie and pronounced it beyond words delicious. "The Greeks had a name for it — and she gave the words, translating: 'The last come shall be first.'"

"Aw, come off it, Baby," Mitliades urged. He hated a display of erudition almost as much as his own silly name. "Kiss me, Kid. But hot."

She gave eminent satisfaction; whereupon he finished the rest of the pie and they went to bed, thus ending, Gloria thought sleepily, the happiest day of their married life yet. She reached her hand across to the other twin bed and Mitliades took it into his big one, and hand in hand, like to babes in Prospect Park, they fell asleep.

SHE was snuggled into the big armchair, still in her green chiffon negligee, the next morning, wishing she didn't have to begin to wash the dishes, when someone knocked peremptorily on her door and when she opened it, two blue-uniformed policemen were standing there.

"Good morning!" Gloria beamed at them impartially, wondering what on earth! Oh, of course: "I'll take two tickets," she offered, looking absently over at the small gray man in overalls behind them who was industriously sweeping down the red carpet of the corridor.

"We wanna know where your friends have skipped to."

"Friends?" Gloria stared at him blankly.

"Don't give us any of that guff," the cop told her, pushing his cap onto the back of his head. "You were seen coming out of Apartment 7A yesterday and people who's close enough to swap pies, are friends, ain't they?"

Reuther Will Try to Deal With Revolt

Toledo, O., May 18 — (AP) — CIO United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther will send a committee here today "to deal with" a revolt which has split Toledo's

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief — help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

hugh local wide open. At least five of the 125 units of the 30,000-35,000-member local rebelled yesterday against Richard T. Gosser, an international UAW vice president, and his control over the local.

The spark which touched off the explosion was the strike Tuesday of 12 women employees of the union's dues collection office. They left their jobs protesting what they said was "domination of Richard T. Gosser."

Charles O. Ballard, UAW regional director, and Howard Seren, local 12 president, said the 12 women "quit their jobs." They were replaced.

Richard L. Lazette, Sr. president of the Toledo Industrial Union council, referring to replacement of the 12 women, declared:

"They have some scabs working in the office now, which threatens to make a mockery of the union."

The council Lazette heads represents about 60,000 industrial unionists. Lazette in a telegram demanded that Reuther come to Toledo to "straighten out this mess."

Reuther advised Lazette he would send a committee to Toledo today "to deal with the Toledo situation." The committee, Reuther said, will be headed by Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer.

Luciano Is Connected With Dopers

Newark, N.J., May 17 — (AP) — A federal attorney last night linked the name of Charles "Lucky" Luciano with a million dollar dope ring allegedly operating out of Newark.

Thirty-one persons were indicted yesterday on dope charges here, and assistant U.S. Attorney Charles J. Tyne said one of them went to Naples, Italy, last summer with $10,000 in cash to buy narcotics from Luciano.

Luciano was deported to Italy some years ago after serving a sentence in New York on vice charges. He had been a notorious underworld figure in the United States.

It was the second batch of indictments returned here in two weeks on narcotics charges, and er said, will be headed by Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer.

This Arkansas Law Has Some Teeth in It

Little Rock, May 17 — (AP) — At least one Arkansas law has some teeth in it.

C. E. Dunbar of Washington, inspector for the post office department, asked what Arkansas had in the way of prohibiting false teeth from entering the state by mail.

Attorney General Ike Murry said section 72-506, Arkansas statutes, prohibits the mailing of false teeth into the state by persons not licensed to practice dentistry.

U.S. Attorney Alfred E. Modarelli said more are coming. However, police said all major figures in a vice ring operating here had been arraigned.

Modarelli said the ring was part of a "million-dollar east coast syndicate" and that arrests would lead to even "higher-up figures in the vicious underworld dope traffic."

Tyne named William Margo, 27, co-owner of the Casa Blanca, as the man who went to Naples. He called George Tausk, Margo's partner in the tavern, "the kingpin of this ring."

Tyne said the ring brought diluted heroin on the New York market for $200 an ounce and resold it in the North Jersey area for from $300 to $1,000 an ounce.

The new England catch of ocean perch, or rosefish, increased from 118,000 (cp) pounds in 1931 to 245,000,000 (m) (cp) in 1949.

Nationalists Welcome Troops

Taipei, May 18 — (AP) — Nationalist China today welcomed as heroes the 150,000 troops who withdrew from Chushan island without firing a shot.

President and Madame Chiang Kai-shek gave each of them seven Formosan dollars About 70 cents each.

The people gave them bananas, watermelons, cakes and sandwiches.

Laudatory banners greeted them everywhere. Speakers extolled them. Their feat in slipping out of Chushan was hailed as a great strategic victory.

The soldiers and officers disembarked from transports singing and shouting "Long live President Chiang." "Long live the republic of China." The title of the song they sang was "Safeguard Formosa."

Madame Chiang in a welcoming speech, said "We realize how difficult your task has been. This is our last bastion against the Communists and we hope you will fight bravely in its defense."

The troops looked pretty tough. They brought their full equipment. The holds of the transports were crammed with mortars, grenades and other apparatus of war.

Schools were given early vacations to provide quarters for the influx of troops.
